

"...everything we know is everything you taste"

The Mediterranean culinary journey created by our Chefs is reflected in an eclectic wine program. The wine list recognizes family-owned wineries and small producers who have chosen the path to sustainable, organic, biodynamic, and natural farming.

The journey takes you through the most influential wine regions of the Mediterranean, as well as some of the traditional wine regions of both the New World and the Old World.

You are invited to try native and rediscovered grape varieties that best represent each area, with respect to the "earth," spotlighting a few Library releases and Seasonal Features that add to the depth of the program while spicing up the wine experience.

*"The soul of a wine is when it speaks to a place.
If you don't have that, then you've missed everything.
And that quest is why we're so fired up to be here."*

A note from the "Wine Guy"

We are thrilled to be recognized by Wine Spectator with the prestigious Award of Excellence 2022 for an outstanding collection of wines from around the world with emphasis on the Mediterranean Sea.

All of our wines are kept in a Vinotemp unit providing a subtle temperature between 50~65 °F for a properly insulated wine cellar. The humidity range of the refrigerated space is maintained within 50~75% RH.

We encourage our guests to bring their own wines; however, corkage is not offered Friday & Saturday Nights as well as on Holidays. We allow corkage Sunday thru Thursday for lunch and dinner and Friday lunch for $45/btl for 2 bottles (750ml) maximum per table of any wine not already represented on our current wine list.

Wines by the Glass

Sparkling (5 oz)

Veuve Clicquot, Brut, Yellow Label, Champagne, Reims, France, NV // 27 (Pinot Noir-Meunier-Chardonnay)

Sake

Japan

Sake is a very versatile drink with great pairing abilities for all types of cuisine, including Mediterranean.

380 Hakuyou Junmai Ginjo White Sun // 115

From the northern province of Fukushima, one of the last strongholds of the Shogun and his Samurai warriors. Subtle, yet dignified aroma of refined rice & deep, earthy mash fades away into a delightfully dry bouquet. A razor-sharp dryness is followed by a spicy sweetness.

- Classification: Junmai Ginjo | Prefecture: Fukushima | Rice Type: Koshi Tanrei | Seimai Buai: 55%

381 Kitsukura Taruzake - Barrel Aged Honjozo // 95

Barrel Aged is a unique gem of sake that has been aged in cedar barrels. During festive occasions in Japan, fine sakes are often poured into cedar barrels to absorb the earthy cedar aroma and flavor.

Piquant aroma, and spices. Light flavors, pickled vegetables and chocolate, honey and vanilla. Elegant and complex.

- Classification: Honjozo | Prefecture: Naganu | Rice Type: Chiyo-Nishiki | Seimai Buai: polished to 58%

382 Matsunoi Wishing Well - Tokubetsu Junmai // 75

One of the smallest breweries in the region. As their production is so limited, most of the sake is shipped to customers in their hometown, Tokamachi in Niigata. This tokubetsu junmai sake, being loved by local sake connoisseurs, is Tokamachi's hidden gem. Shy nose with hints of the sea. Dry, earthy, complex. Piquant aroma, and spices.

- Classification: Tokubetsu Junmai | Prefecture: Niigata | Rice Type: Takane Nishiki | Seimai Buai: polished to 55%
